

Award	Presentation	Outline of Award
Napp Pain Award Mailed to members March 2009 Closing date for submissions 1 st June 2009	As an oral presentation at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009 or the Pain Management Group Study Day, plus as a poster presentation at the Autumn Symposium 2009	Value of Award £1500 This award is designed to recognise innovation and excellence in the delivery of pain management and to improve patient care in one of the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development of guidelines for the treatment pain • Education &/or counselling of patient(s) and their carer(s) about pain • Use of analgesics in the management of cancer or persistent non-cancer pain • The role of a pharmacist in the multidisciplinary team • Issues around the primary care / secondary care interface in pain management • Use of non-medical prescribing in pain management Submissions may relate to any area of clinical practice which results in improvement to patients' pain management.
hameln pharmaceuticals Awards Call for abstracts mailed to members April 2009 Closing date for submissions 5 th July 2009	UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009	Free registration at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009 Given for the following categories: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Best oral presentation • 2 Best Posters presented Abstracts and posters submitted and accepted for the Autumn Symposium 2009 are adjudicated during the meeting
hameln pharmaceuticals General Level presentation places Announced in April 2009 Closing date for submissions 5 th July 2009	UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009	Free registration for General Level pharmacists presenting their posters/oral communication at the Autumn Symposium 2009 Authors must be practicing at general level Submissions must meet the criteria specified in the call for abstracts All entries will be eligible for the hameln oral communication and poster awards at the Autumn Symposium 2009
Novartis Antimicrobial Management Award Mailed to members April 2009 Closing date for submissions 31 st July 2009	As an oral presentation at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009 or the Infection Management Group Study Day, plus as a poster presentation at the Autumn Symposium 2009	The award of £1500 will enable the winner to attend the 20 th European Congress of Clinical Microbiology and Infectious Diseases (ECCMID), to be held in Vienna, Austria, 10 th – 13 th April 2010 and also to present the work as a short lecture at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009. This award is intended to recognise innovation in antimicrobial management. Any area of work will be considered but may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • development and implementation of evidence-based guidelines • multidisciplinary team working • education and training • audit and/or benchmarking • interventions to reduce inappropriate prescribing • data collection methodology
GSK Advanced Practitioner Award Mailed to members June 2009 Closing date for submissions 1 st September 2009	UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009	Value of Award £1500 GSK will pay for the Symposium registration of the winner and two additional team members. The purpose of this award is to recognise expert practice, innovation or service delivery improvements in the fields of acute (urgent) care and applicable to any pharmacist working across any therapeutic or service area involved with major and emergency injury and acute specialist care.
UKCPA Lifetime Achievement Award Mailed to members April 2008 Closing date for submissions 30 th September 2009	UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2009	Free registration at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium This is a nominated award. Nominees should be proposed and seconded by members of the UKCPA. Nominations should detail the nominee's name and the reasons for the nomination in no more than 500 words. Nominees do not need to be members of the Association. The UKCPA is keen to reward achievements in developing and promoting clinical pharmacy, innovation, research and development, publication and dissemination of good practice, and recognition by peers. As this is a Lifetime Achievement Award, achievements should be over a period of time. The winner will be asked to give a brief acceptance speech. This award may not necessarily be given each year.
Pfizer Patient Safety Award Mailed to members September 2009 Closing date for submissions 10 th December 2009	UKCPA/GHP Spring Symposium 2010	Value of Award £1500 This award is to recognise innovative pharmacy practice in any sector of practice to address the patient safety agenda <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Risk management • Adverse events and near-misses • Quality of care initiatives • Implementing change
Sanofi Aventis Diabetes Award Mailed to members September 2009 Closing date for submissions 10 th December 2009	As an oral presentation at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2010 or the Diabetes Group Study Day, plus as a poster presentation at the Autumn Symposium 2010. The winner should also submit their work as a poster to either the International Diabetes Federation or the American Diabetes Association Conference.	Value of Award £1500 This Award has been designed to recognise the development of pharmacist services to patients with diabetes initiatives. If you have undertaken a project of strategic importance you are invited to apply for this award. The adjudication panel will look primarily for projects which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deliver improved patient care • Demonstrate a new model of practice • Are based around current innovations in practice
UKCPA Education & Training Award Mailed to members September 2009 Closing date for submissions 10 th December 2009	As an oral presentation at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2010 or the E&T Group Study Day, plus as a poster presentation at the Autumn Symposium 2010.	Free registration at the UKCPA Autumn Symposium 2010 This award has been designed to recognise completed education or training initiatives. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet identified needs • Promote advances in pharmaceutical care • Demonstrate measurable outcomes
TEVA Leadership Award Joint UKCPA/GHP Award – Mailed to members Sept 2009 & announced on GHP website Closing date for submissions 15 th February 2010	UKCPA/GHP Spring Symposium 2010	Value of Award £1500 This award aims to recognise leadership in any area of healthcare pharmacy, at any level of practice. It is not restricted to senior managers and applications from or submissions on behalf of practitioners at any level and in any area are encouraged.